JUST a week after Antony News with his story of the underground plot to seize power in Germany came an official acknowledgment from Bonn yesterday that German youths are training for a civil war.

The West German Government
 information bulletin claims Communist are training German youth as leaders for a civil war
 in the West.

The bulletin, according to Asso- ciated Press, says that youths from Western Germany are being taken to East Germany, Russia and Soviet satellite countries for military and political training as
 "civil war officers."

The conclusion from this was that the Communists were training fanatics for civil war in the West.

To-day's picture, linking with last week's news, shows the Berlin

leader of the illegal sabotage
 squads, ex-Hitler youth officer Horst Schlienz, who lives in the city's British sector. He wears a shirt of a senior "Führer," complete with shoulder flash.

Schlienz started to organize the underground after the war by forming several hundred fanatical
 youths and girls into the "League of Young Germans."

The League's uniform—black shirt carrying the SS arrow symbol on chest and tie—which he wears in secret meetings to discuss their plans for sabotage with R. S. S.

FUHRER BEHIND BARS

Jan. 20, 1952.

HERR ROOSEVELDT is a regular visitor to Britain. His job is courier and contact man between Fascists in England who are eager to support the new Nazis in Germany.

He also brings them money to finance their activities — money that comes from the Soviets in East Germany. Last year he paid five visits — in May, July, August, October and November.

The real name of "Herr Roosevelt" is Kurt Schwarz, a former Nazi Party public speaker. He enters Britain with false papers obtained from a man named Haas in Rotterdam. Schwarz, a swarthy fanatic who has just opened a bookshop in the French zone of Berlin, is typical of the men who live only to bring the jackboot back into Germany.

I have talked to many of them. No man or woman who cherishes freedom should underestimate them. To make Germany free again they will wage a civil war, spill any amount of blood. One day they will be as powerful, free and armed as the Soviets — for their own reasons.

The "Führer" is the present-day Führer. Ernst Otto Gessler, the man who looks like a madman, is the present-day Führer. Schwarz is a courier and contact man between Fascists in England who are eager to support the new Nazis in Germany.

striking an opponent lying on the ground with a chair.

At present Remer languishes in prison for slandering President Adenauer. Perhaps he is writing a new "Mein Kampf." When he comes out the new German "Messiah" with a huge German eagle badge in his buttonhole, will once more stalk the land.

Officially Remer leads the "Reich - Party" which has already secured support at elections in Lower Saxony. His new lieutenant is Erwin Gieseler, the party's only representative in the Bonn Government. But respectable politicians are now anxious to hitch their star to the Remer handwagon.

Schwarz snarled

LET us go back to Kurt Schwarz the courier. I was called on last of his new newspaper. Schwarz was mixed with some of the best of us and some of the worst. Schwarz is a courier and contact man between Fascists in England who are eager to support the new Nazis in Germany.

But the new Nazis still boast 'Nothing can stop us seizing power'

Antony Terry

Empire News Special Correspondent in Germany, continues his exposure of the rebirth of the Nazis who plan a rising next autumn day will come when we will again seize power—and nothing can stop us!

"Germany was great under Hitler. She will become great again with the help of Russia."

"His young wife spat at me: 'We are stronger than you think!'"

Schwarz is a very active Nazi Hitler-trained, he knows all the tricks. Besides his visits to Britain, he distributes pro-Nazi leaflets to British troops in Berlin.

Another of the new Nazis is Erwin Gieseler, the party's only representative in the Bonn Government. But respectable politicians are now anxious to hitch their star to the Remer handwagon.

of goods manufactured in the Soviet Zone.

Petrochka is typical of the host of go-between men linking the Nazis with their Russian friends. His underground "contact man" for the American Zone is former S.S. Major Peisen in Coburg. His contacts in the British Zone are Remer's party officials. The work is dangerous, but Petrochka is making a great deal of money by doing it. That is why he can afford to run two homes.

Armed uprising?

LAST week I mentioned former S.S. Colonel Erwin Gieseler, whose prefab home in the U.S. Zone is only 40 yards from the border of the Soviet Zone. His job is to organise the armed uprising — when it comes — in the western sectors of Berlin.

He told me: "Remer is in jail but we have been given a direct order by the Führer to take things easy until he comes out. After that you may expect things to happen.

"Our orders are to accept any help in the way of armaments, money and equipment that the Soviets are willing to give. We intend to use them against the Western Powers and the degenerate pro-Western Government of Dr. Adenauer, which is undermining the Nordic character of the German race with its ideas of democracy.

"Once we have gained our objective, which for the present is the same as that of the Communists, we shall throw their help overboard. We are waiting for the moment to strike against the decaying West, which cannot even win a war against the Chinese in Korea."

A NEW group is the League now known as the "S.A. Horst Wessel Tradition." It is made up of the old Hitler brown-shirt thugs anxious to put on those jackboots again and is also financed by the Communists in East Germany. Its leader is a former Hitler brown-shirt named Robert Pragg, who recently said an excellent: "We demand up of the old Hitler brownshirt thugs anxious to put on those jackboots again and is also financed by the Communists in East Germany. Its leader is a former Hitler brown-shirt named Robert Prager, who recently told an audience: "We demand friendly relations with the people of Soviet Russia as comrades in destiny of the German nation." The old anti-Semitic slogans were also served up by him.

Then there is Colonel Schmidt, formerly of the Wehrmacht. He leads in the American zone of Berlin the powerful ex-Servicemen's organisation known as the "Steel Helmet League." His second-in-command is "Major of Panzer Troops" Hans Ahlbeck, who claims that Hitler gave him almost every possible decoration.

These ex-servicemen bar from membership any German who had a hand in the conspiracy to kill Hitler in July, 1944. Its main aim is to "re-establish the honour of the German officer in a free and independent Germany."

Schmidt said in Berlin a few weeks ago: "We have been chosen to lead the young generation of Germans - one day against the enemy in the western part of our Fatherland. We owe it to our people to set an example by our discipline and our military bearing. The proletarian German always needs a higher being to whom he can look up and revere like a deity."

"Any one of us may be chosen to become the leader destined to save Germany from its Western oppressors, Britain and America."

A £5,000 gift

ONE of the chief agents in the gun-running is a Bulgarian, Hanes Petroschka, who ran a dance-band as a "cover" for his other activities. Petroschka is known as the man with two homes. He has a flat in the French sector of Berlin but actually has his office in the Soviet sector.

During the early part of last year he gave to the Berlin branch of Remer's Reich Party a sum of £5,000. The money came from the Communist "State Security" funds in the Soviet Zone. It was earned by the illegal sale in West Germany
