NUMBER OF INDIVIDUALS OPPOSED TO ARMED ACTION AGAINST WEST NEW GUINEA HAVE BEEN ARRESTED

---

On 5th December it was reported that 5 individuals known to be opposed to armed action against West New Guinea had been arrested. On 6th December the number was said to have increased to 16.

No names of those arrested are known, except that of AHMAD SUBADIO, former Ambassador to Switzerland.

The official reason for the arrests was "discovery of a Dutch plot involving several Indonesians."
