ASSIGNMENT OF GEN. SARBINI TO CENTRAL JAVA COMMAND

General SARBINI, currently coordinator for military affairs in East Indonesia will replace Colonel PRANOTO as Central Java Military Commander in June 1961.

SARBINI does not like his present job and would welcome the Central Java command. His appointment is scheduled to coincide with the integration into the Central Java command of some of the Permesta units from the Somba-Kawilarang forces which recently decided to return to the fold. Colonel SOMBA himself will be given a troop command in Central Java.

Comment: The replacement of PRANOTO by SARBINI and the positioning of former Permesta troops in Central Java is expected to result in much more effective counter-measures against the Communists in Central Java.
