INDONESIAN AIR STRIKE AGAINST NETHERLANDS NEW GUINEA TARGETS?

Adam MALIK, the Indonesian Ambassador in Moscow, has stated that there is a possibility of some form of Indonesian air strike against Netherlands New Guinea targets in retaliation for the incident of January 15th, unless the Dutch agreed on the de facto transfer of administration within the next two or three weeks. He added that a major invasion was not likely in the immediate future.

Comment: MALIK made this statement to a Turkish journalist in London on 25th January 1962.
