Organisational Structure of the KPÖ.

1. The overall picture of the structure of the KPÖ has not altered very much during the last 2 years. There have, however, been some changes in the lower formations of the party and also, in view of the increased importance of so-called "non-political" organisations like the "League of Democratic Women" etc., the Z.K. has now assumed direct control over them.

It may, therefore, be of value to have a complete breakdown of the organisation of the KPÖ and locations as existent in August 1950.

2. Chain of Command (from highest to lowest formation)
Central Committee (Z.K.) - Central Control (Zentrale Kontrolle)
Provincial H.Q. (Landesleitung) - Provincial Control (Landes Kontrolle)
District H.Q. (Bezirksleitung) - District Control (Bezirkskontrolle)
Area H.Q. (Gebietsleitungen)
Section and Factory group (Betriebsorganisation B.O.)
Sprengel
Stützpunkt and Factory cell (Betriebszelle)
Verbindungen.

- a) The Z.K. is the highest executive organ of the party. It consists of 58 members, mostly paid full time functionaries. In addition, there are 14 candidate members of the Z.K.
- b) The Central Control is elected from amongst the members of the Z.K. plenary meetings. (58 plus 14 candidate members).
- c) Landesleitungen are directly subordinate to the Z.K. Their most prominent functionaries (secretary etc.) are normally also members of the Z.K. Members of the Landesleitung are elected for a period of 3 years by the provincial party congress on recommendations from the Z.K. The Landesleitung is subdivided into committees and Referate similar to the Z.K. but, of course, on a smaller scale.
- d) Landeskontrolle is also elected by the provincial party congress.
- e) Bezirksleitungen are directly subordinate to the Landesleitung. The secretary of a Bezirksleitung is appointed by the Z.K., - all other members are elected at district party conferences. There are 120 Bezirksleitungen in Austria.
- f) Gebietsleitungen. In geographically large districts with a preponderant working class population, various sections and Betriebsorganisationen are formed into Gebietsleitungen and subordinated to the Bezirksleitung.
- g) Sektionen and Betriebsorganisationen (B.O.) are the smallest self-contained units of the party in town or factory and should consist of at least 20 members.
- h) Sprengel are administrative sub-divisions of some of the larger Sektionen.
- i) Stützpunkte or Betriebszellen are existent in areas or factories where there is only a small number of party followers (Normally 3-8). They receive their instructions from the nearest Sektion.
- j) Verbindung is a solitary Communist in an area who is required to carry out tasks (mainly propaganda) allotted to him by a Sektion.

3. The Zentralkomitee (Z.K.)

- a) The Z.K. consists of the following departments:-
 - i) Secretariat of the Z.K.
 - ii) Politburo of the Z.K.
 - iii) Orgburo of the Z.K.

The members of these 3 bureaus are elected by secret ballot from the 72 members and candidates of the Z.K.
Finance and Personnel departments are branches of the Orgburo and are therefore not listed independently.

Special Committees for military matters, security and intelligence affairs, liaison with the Cominform and other fraternal parties are set up within and controlled by members of the Politburo, Orgburo or Secretariat.

- iv) Agitprop department (Zentralstelle für Volksbildung)
- v) Abteilung für Massenorganisationen (front organisations)
- vi) Referat für Jugendfragen (Youth affairs)
- vii) Referat für Sport, Turnen and Bergsteigen.
- viii) Zentrales Frauen Komitee (Central Women's Committee)
- ix) Zentrales Österreichisches Bauernkomitee (Central Peasants' Committee)
- x) "Volksstimme" (Central Organ of the KPÖ)
- xi) Theoretisches Organ "Weg und Ziel" (Monthly publication)

b) In addition there are the following groups:-

- Group of Communist writers.
- " " " creative artists and architects.
- " " " musicians.
- " " " actors.

All the above have their seat at the headquarters building of the KPÖ, Vienna IX, Wasagasse 10.

4. The Z.K. further controls the following "non-political" organisations:-

Verband Österreichischer antifaschistischer Freiheitskämpfer,
